26 november. DELHI

Assistance by an agency representative. Transfers to the hotel. Around 1:00 pm departure to visit the Gateway of India and its gardens, lunch (not included) and departure to visit the Birla temple. Delhi's Laxminarayan Temple, known as Birla Mandir, is a place of worship dedicated to Laxmi, the Hindu goddess of prosperity, and her husband Vishnu. It is one of the best temples in central Delhi to visit. It is also very famous for the beauty of its architecture and the parks that surround it. Every year the colorful festival of Janmashtami is celebrated there, which honors the anniversary of Krishna's birth. Next, we cannot miss the temple of the Sikhs "Gurudwara" where, apart from hearing their chants and prayers inside the temple, we will visit the kitchens where thousands of pilgrims receive free food daily. Gurudwara Bangla Sahib is the main Sikh temple in the city of Delhi. It is located very close to the famous and central Connaught Place, and is immediately recognizable by its peculiar golden dome and a long flagpole. The entire temple is built of marble, including the floor, and in addition to this temple the complex has a kitchen, a pond, a school and an art gallery. Quite an experience. Dinner in a restaurant included. Local english guide Accommodation according to selected category

27 november. DELHI

Breakfast. Departure at 8:00 a.m. Visit of the Jama Masjid in Delhi The Jama Masjid or Friday Mosque is one of the largest mosques in India. It is also the main center of worship for Muslims in Delhi. It is located at the beginning of Chandni Chowk street, this market is famous because in each of its streets there is a product or object, there is the street of artisans, jewelry, wedding invitations, etc. We will take a walk through the market to live the experience. (food not included) Next, we will visit Qutub Minar. The Qutab Minar is the tallest brick minaret in the world and is also an outstanding example of Islamic art, being the oldest Islamic monument in Delhi. The tower is built next to the Quwwat Mosque within the Qutb Complex, a set of ruins of what was the first Islamic city in Delhi. It is also the most famous monument in the entire complex. Just like the marvelous Taj Mahal in Agra, the Qutab Minar is another great masterpiece of Mughal architecture. Accommodation according to selected category. Dinner in a restaurant included Local english guide

29 november. MANDAWA-DESNOHK-BIKANER. 3 hours. Departure 8.30 am

Breakfast. Departure to Bikaner, visiting the temple of Karni Mata, the temple of the rats, on the way. The Karni Mata Temple is considered to be one of the most curious and unique temples in the world, as more than 20,000 rats, considered sacred, coexist inside it. According to one of the many legends, Karni Mata, a reincarnation of Druga, asked Yama, god of death, to bring the son of a storyteller back to life. Yama refused Karni's request, and Karni made all the storytellers reincarnate as rats upon death, thus leaving the god of death without human souls. Then departure to visit Junagarh Fort. Junagarh Fort is a fort in the city of Bikaner, Rajasthan, India. The fort was originally called Chintamani and was renamed Junagarh or "Old Fort" in the early 20th century when the ruling family moved to the Lalgah Palace outside the fort's boundaries. It is one of the few major forts in Rajasthan that is not built on top of a hill. We will take a walk to discover the market of the old city of Bikaner, a very lively market of spices and other objects. Accommodation according to selected category. Dinner included in the hotel. 1 december.. JAISALMER-DESIERTO DEL THAR-JAISALMER. Departure 8.45 am

Breakfast. Departure to visit Jaisalmer Fort. We will visit this wonderful 11th century fort with its alleys and from where we can see the entire city. We will attend an arti (religious ceremony in one of its temples) and visit its majestic Jain temples of incomparable beauty. We will continue the visit to the old part outside the Fort, walking through its markets until we reach the havelis. Havelis were houses established by merchants in the late 18th and early 19th centuries as a display of their wealth. These impressive mansions of the time, each one more spectacular, was practically a competition to see who would come to own the most beautiful and well-crafted property, the most outstanding being Patwa Ki haveli, Salim Singh Ki haveli and Nathmalji. This, that the most striking feature that we can find when we visit these mansions are their very elaborate facades, loaded with small stems with floral motifs sculpted in the same rock that characterizes the city. Currently, a large part of these houses have been converted into museums where you can go through part of the history of the city, telling what life was like in the city and the work of a merchant. (food not included). Return to the hotel to rest. Depart around 4:30 pm to the desert to attend an opium ceremony in the Thar desert. This type of celebration is always done when a child is born in the family or when a wedding is celebrated. Very interesting to attend to see it, we will visit some desert town. Dinner in the desert in the dunes with candles and show. (the desert will be done in jeeps). Return after dinner to the hotel Accommodation according to selected category. DIA 3 december. JODHPUR. Departure 9 am.

Breakfast. We will visit the Meranghar Fort. Mehrangarh Fort sits high on a hill above the blue city of Jodhpur. It is a real wonder, both the view from any high point of the city towards the fortress, as well as the views from its walls and the interior visit. Jodhpur Fort, called Mehrangarh Fort is perched on a 125 meter hill above blue Jodhpur and spans about 5 km. Construction began in 1459 by Rao Jodha, the founder of Jodhpur, although many parts of the fort were added later, especially during the reign of Jaswant Singh in the 17th century. Next, we will visit the Jaswant Thada. It is a mausoleum finely carved from the same white marble that was used to build the Taj Mahal in Agra. The mausoleum was built in 1899 in memory of Maharaja Jaswant Singh II, who is considered one of the best rulers the city of Jodhpur has ever had and is still revered even today. (food not included). Return to the hotel to rest. Around 6:00 p.m. departure to walk through the famous market of the Clock Tower (Tower Market) and we will take the opportunity to have some sweets, the best in the entire State of Rajasthan. Dinner at the hotel. Accommodation according to selected category. Locale english guide. Dinner included in the hotel.

4 december. JODHPUR-RANAKPUR-KUMBALGARH-UDAIPUR. 6 hours

Breakfast. Breakfast. Drive to Udaipur. The city of lakes. We will make a stop at the Om Bana temple. The Om Bana temple is one of the strangest in India, as its deity is an Enfield Bullet motorcycle. This motorcycle is known as Bullet Baba. The story goes that a resident of this town, Om Bana, died in this place when his motorcycle collided with a tree. The motorcycle was taken to the police station, mysteriously the motorcycle returned to the accident site by itself twice. He says that the police chained the motorcycle at the police station and emptied the fuel tank, but all this was in vain, since he returned to the same place where the accident occurred. The news spread through the nearby towns and the neighbors created a temple in the place of the accident to worship the motorcycle. On the way we will visit Ranakpur where the best Jain temples in all of India are located. The environment is really wonderful, watch out for the monkeys (food not included). We will visit the Kumbalgarh Fort at sunset, illuminated is an authentic beauty. Next, we leave for the city of lakes, the white city of Rajasthan. Arrival and transfers to the hotel.

Accommodation according to selected category. Local english guide. Dinner included in the hotel.

7 december. JAIPUR-AMBER-JAIPUR. Departure 8 am.

Breakfast. Departure to visit the Amber Fort. The impressive Amber Fort, located near Jaipur in the State of Rajasthan, is one of the best known and most visited forts in India. No wonder it features prominently on the list of top attractions to see in India. The extensive complex combines large fortifications with interior rooms of beauty and a special charm that will delight everyone who visits it. Amber Fort dates back to the 16th century and is situated on a natural ridge 11 kilometers north of Jaipur. We will do the ascent by elephant, those who do not want can do it by jeep. Next, we will visit the monkey temple in an enviable setting. (food not included). We will visit the Palace of the Winds. The Hawa Mahal or Palace of the Winds, was built by the Marahá Sawai Pratap Singh in 1799. It was part of the City Palace and served as an extension of the women's chamber for the harem. The original function of the building was to allow royal women to observe the daily life of the city streets without being seen, and thus through its numerous small windows they could enjoy a certain freedom without being seen. It is considered the greatest exponent of Rajput architecture, which indicates the glory of that royal family, although nuances of the architecture of the Mongolian civilization can also be observed. Although little more than the façade remains today, the palace has become the symbol of Jaipur. We will visit the observatory and we will walk through the market of the old city, it is very curious because the shops are below and the houses of the merchant above. Return to the hotel for dinner. 9 december. AGRA-DELHI. 3 hours. Departure 19.00 pm

At dawn. Visit of the Taj Mahal. The Taj Mahal is a mausoleum built by the Mughal emperor Sha Jahan in honor of his favorite wife, Mumtaz Mahal (the "Chosen of the Palace" or the "Jewel of the Palace"), who died in childbirth. Taj Mahal (abbreviation of the name of Mumtaz Mahal) also means "The Jewel of the Palace". Return to the hotel for breakfast and rest. Around 12.00 am. Departure to visit the majestic Red Fort of Agra. The fort built in red sandstone (hence the name), by the Mughal Emperor Akbar. Since 1983 it is considered a World Heritage Site by UNESCO. The story goes that a battle took place at this fort during the Indian Rebellion of 1857, which ended the power of the British East India Company and began British rule in India. (Meal not included)). We will visit Sikandra. Sikandra is the mausoleum of Mughal Emperor Akbar, Sikandra. He ordered it to be built by the emperor himself in 1600. Work began in 1605, after extensive planning. In Tatar tradition, one planned one's grave for himself in life, so it is not surprising. Akbar selected the place where it would be located and approved the entire project. It was finished by his son Jahangir in 1613. He ordered everything already built to be demolished and started again. I only keep the plinth. This tomb was looted by rebel Jats under the reign of the last emperor, Akbar's great-grandson Aurangzeb. They took jewelry, carpets, gold and silver. The worst thing was that they also destroyed countless things. They also burned Akbar's bones. Also the neighboring Taj Mahal building was looted by them and two of the Agra gates were stolen. For all this, their leader was later sentenced to death by the emperor. It was the British who, under the leadership of Lord Curzon, carried out the restoration of the place. Depart for Delhi. Dinner at the hotel. Last hours in Delhi. At the scheduled time transfers to the International airport. End of our services Accommodation according to selected category. Local english guide. Dinner included in the hotel.
